THE HELPERS'
UNION

A LEAGUE OF INTERCESSORS

WESLEYAN METHODIST
MISSIONARY SOCIETY

24 BISHOPSGATE
LONDON . . E.C.2

The HELPERS' UNION is a Fellowship of Missionary Intercession.

Its members are united in a strong assurance that God answers prayer, and that prayer is the greatest power entrusted to men.

They desire the coming of our Lord's Kingdom in all the World.

They believe that through the exercise of prayer they may claim a place in missionary service, though they have never seen the mission field—that they may bring strength to the weak, deliverance to the tempted, courage to the faint-hearted, and, to many, grace to overcome.

Members of the HELPERS' UNION undertake to pray daily for the coming of Christ's Kingdom, using for that purpose the Manual of the Union—"WHAT TO PRAY FOR." * This booklet is a compendium of missionary information, and suggests subjects for missionary information in a cycle of a month. The first twelve days deal with the various branches of missionary work, and the following eighteen days are allotted to the different mission fields in order. Without binding the petitions of members or requiring that anyone should adopt the forms of request indicated, the Manual provides the knowledge on which intelligent prayer may be based, and secures that none of the workers and no part of the field shall be forgotten.

At intervals, a HELPERS' UNION message is sent to the members, containing fresh facts from the field and other helps to intercession. Our Lord has promised great grace to those who are "gathered together in My Name," and to those who "agree as touching anything that they shall ask." It is earnestly hoped that members of the Union will meet for prayer when possible, and do all in their power to sustain the local missionary prayer-meeting.

"Ye that are the Lord's remembrancers, take ye no rest, and give Him no rest till He establish and till He make Jerusalem a praise in the earth."

"The harvest truly is plenteous but the labourers are few. Pray ye therefore the Lord of the Harvest."

"Ye also helping together on our behalf by your supplication; that for the gift bestowed upon us by means of many, thanks may be given by many persons on our behalf."

"Brethren pray for us."
